The History Of Berardi's

The Berardi's Restaurants have a long local history. The food business began for the family in 1942 with Eurosia's (Mama Berardi) recipe for homemade French fries. The quality and simplicity behind the recipe made it a winner from the start, fresh sliced potatoes deep fried and seasoned with salt and ketchup had the visitors at Cedar Point standing in long lines awaiting the next fresh order to be served. Many people confessed that the tasty fries were the main reason that they visited Cedar Point! Albert Berardi joined his mother in the business and the third generation of Berardi's carry on the tradition of great service and great quality food in the Berardi restaurants today.

Berardi's restaurants are independently owned and operated by Berardi's family members. There are currently two Berardi restaurants in the area.

Berardi's restaurant celebrated 25 years in Huron in 2004. Formerly, the Frost Top Drive In, in its early days, it became Berardi's Restaurant in 1978.

We thank you for making Berardi's your dining choice.
